Editor's Report

Thank you for the opportunity to edit your paper. It was a pleasure to review your engaging work. I have focused on perfecting grammar and consistency throughout and have applied UK English conventions, as requested.

Please carefully read through my edits and in-text comments, which provide further detail and suggestions for improvements, before accepting or rejecting any changes. In addition, please review the table below for an assessment of your manuscript and an overview of key points that have been addressed.

I wish you the best with publication, and I look forward to working with you again soon.

Sincerely,

Jesse Jones, BSc MPH GradCertArts

Summary
Abstract	The abstract follows a clear standard format. It provides an excellent overview of your study, key findings and conclusions. You may need to check that it fits within any length requirement of your target journal.
Background	You have provided a good overview of the current literature and justified the need for your study, with appropriate supporting references. I have highlighted a point or two that may benefit from a little clarification.
Methods	This section explains your study methodology and analytical approach very well. Similar research could be reproduced based on this detail.
Results	Clear and comprehensive results are presented for your investigations. The inclusion of your data tables enhances the text.
Discussion and conclusion	You have analysed the study findings in good depth, including explanation of your results and comparisons with the existing literature. The study strengths and limitations are thoughtfully addressed. The discussion leads into clear and logical conclusions and recommendations.
References	Your in-text citations are thorough and consistent. I have made only minor format corrections. You may need to review the reference numbering as noted. I have reviewed the end reference list to ensure consistency.
