

An overview of the mosquito blood-feeding experiments; A) Cattle were kept in crushes and their weights were measured before treatment (ivermectin, fipronil and control), B) Duplicate cups with 30 mosquitoes each covered by netting and C) Mosquitoes were blood-fed by applying the cups against the cattle on the shaved spots for 15 minutes.