

Interview guide

General information

Age:

Sex:

Level of education:

Academic rank:

Occupation:

Service location:

Years of service:

Interview Guide Questions for Nursing Educators

- Please discuss transferring the ethical values of the nursing profession to students.
- Tell me about the methods used to institutionalize the ethical values of the profession.
- Explain the training strategies employed to teach the ethical values of the profession.
- Tell me how students are evaluated on issues related to nursing ethics.
- Please explain how you convey the concept of social justice to students.
- Share your experiences in teaching social justice and changing student behaviors.

Interview Guide Questions for Nurses

- What steps do you take to establish social justice?
- Based on your experience, what factors influence your participation in justice activities?
- Share your educational experiences in the field of ethical values of the profession, including social justice, from the beginning of your career.

Interview Guide Questions for Nursing Students

- Share your teaching-learning experiences related to professional ethics.
- What are the effective methods of teaching professional ethics? Please elaborate.
- Please explain how the training provided for social justice was.