

The Skeleton Key Group

The Skeleton Key Group

The Skeleton Key Group started in 2019; it is a group of 20+ nephrology fellows/IM residents who put together a monthly education package for Renal Fellow Network. Our interest is mainly in electrolyte disturbance. We believe in team work and free open access medical education. Thank you for filling out this survey.

Editorial Board: Amy, Sayna

@amyamei @saynanorouzi

Faculty: Joel

@Kidney_boy

1. What is your level of training

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="radio"/> Medical Student | <input type="radio"/> NP/PA |
| <input type="radio"/> Intern | <input type="radio"/> Pediatrics Resident |
| <input type="radio"/> IM Resident | <input type="radio"/> RN |
| <input type="radio"/> Family Medicine Resident | <input type="radio"/> Attending/physician |
| <input type="radio"/> Nephrology Fellow | <input type="radio"/> Other |

Other (please specify)

2. How did you find out about The Skeleton Key Group?

- Renal Fellow Network
- Twitter
- Colleagues
- Other

Other (please specify)

3. How do you rate the quality of our blog posts on Renal Fellow Network in general ?

0 5

4. Do you find our teaching method (case presentation followed by a tweetorial and poll questions) effective?

- Yes
- Somehow
- No

5. Which of the following educational materials you find it more useful? (Please rank them)

Blog post on RFN

Tweetorials

Follow up poll questions

Visual abstracts

6. Has your educational experience been affected at your institution during COVID-19?

- Yes
- Somehow
- No

7. We remained active during this time and continued sharing educational content on twitter and RFN; do you find it as an effective educational experience during this time?

- Yes
- Somehow
- No
- Comment

Other (please specify)

8. Are you interested in joining our group? (you will join a large group of trainees interested in electrolytes, we discuss and edit cases together)

- Yes
- No
- Already a member
- If yes, please comment your twitter handle/or email

Other (please specify)

9. In what country do you live?