Dear Ms Chu.

I received your email through Dr. Wessel.

You have my permission to translate the WORC. Please use the attached guidelines and send me the back translation when you have it so that I can confirm that the meaning has not changed.

Thanks

Sharon Griffin

Dear Sharon,

Some people are looking for you in order to make a translation of the WORC. I prefer to forward this mail to you instead of passing through your email address.

Ronald

Onderwerp: I would like to ask you how to contact Dr. Sharon Griffin

Dear Dr. Wessel

My name is Chu, Kuo-Min and I am the current head nurse of the Department of Orthopedic at Taiwan Taipei Veterans General Hospital, I am also a doctoral student of nursing of National Taiwan University. Most of the patients in our units are rotator cuff tear, I am very interested in the Western Ontario Rotator Cuff index, as I know, there is no Chinese version of the WORC, so our orthopedic team wants to translate the WORC index into the Chinese-language, but I don't know how to contact with Dr. Sharon Griffin to get the permission. I
